All Personnel Concerned

1. Relative to DepEd Memorandum No. 89, s. 2022, the Human Resource Development Division (HRDD) announces its regional call for Nomination for the 2023 Princess Maha Chakri Award.
2. The award aims to promote excellent practices, and inspire and serve as examples for teachers in Southeast Asia. Hence, it puts premium on the following:
 - 2.a Outstanding achievement of teachers which generates benefits to education and human development;
 - 2.b Active involvement of teachers in teaching or administering at the primary or secondary levels; and
 - 2.c Dedication of teachers to provide quality education to learners which inspired their fellow teachers.
3. The Philippines' Princess Maha Chakri Award Screening includes the following criteria:
 - 3.a Participation in community and civic movements most especially where education is least accessible.
 - 3.b Innovation in teaching has benefited the communities where he/she has taught; and
 - 3.c Ability to inspire, promote and sustain the development of students and fellow teachers through their decision.
4. Interested public school teacher applicants are directed to submit the pertinent documents to the Department of Education Regional Office, which shall likewise include:
 - 4.a Updated Personal Data Sheet (CS Form 212)
 - 4.b 1,500 words essay by the nominee why he/she should receive the Award;
 - 4.c Letter of nomination from the Division Office addressed to the Regional Director, Carlito D. Rocafort, (Thru: Mervie Y. Seblos, Chief Education Supervisor - HRDD) signed by the Schools Division Superintendent or duly authorized official; and
 - 4.d Matrix to summarize the activities done, awards received and accomplishments relevant to the award accompanied by supporting documents (Spell out acronyms or organizers and topic/s or subjects of the training; certificates of training need not be submitted). Please see enclosure.
