LEONARDO M. BALALA

Schools Division Superintendent
Department of Education South Cotabato
Alunan Avenue, Koronadal City

Dear Sir Balala,

Greetings of Peace!

We will once again be celebrating Consumer Welfare Month (CWM) this coming October. The celebration aligns with the national government's key policy of promoting consumer welfare advocacy and raising public awareness of consumerism.

In support of this advocacy, we would like to involve the academe in the Provincial Quiz Show on October 10, 2023, from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the 4th Floor, KCC Convention Hall, KCC Mall of Marbel.

In this regard, we seek your office's assistance in inviting school heads/principals to participate in the competition. Attached are the registration form and mechanics for your perusal. Please email the completed registration forms and other requirements to dtisco.planning@gmail.com on or before October 4, 2024.

If you have any further questions, please contact Ms. Leslie T. Aranilla or Mr. Januel King J. Vertido of the Consumer Protection Division at 083-228-2659, or message us on our official Facebook page: DTI South Cotabato.

Thank you so much, more power to our consumer welfare and protection advocacies!

Very truly yours,

RICTONIEL T. REGINIO, CESO V
Provincial Director

SUPER Consumer Quiz Show 2024

"GenS: Generation Sustainable"

CONTEST MECHANICS

The following mechanics shall be observed in the conduct of the "SUPER Consumer Quiz Show for the year 2024;

Qualification (Mandatory):

- The participation is open to Junior High School Students (Grade 7-10)
- The Regional and Provincial Champions of the previous SUPER Consumer Quiz Show are disqualified from joining.
- Participants in the Regional Quiz Show are the top three (3) winners per Field Office.

Manner of Conduct:

- The contest will be played in three rounds, the 1st round with the easy questions, the 2nd round with the average questions, and the 3rd round with the difficult questions.
- Easy Questions are equivalent to 5 points each, average questions are equivalent to 10 points each, and difficult questions are equivalent to 15 points each. Each round will be composed of ten questions.
- The scoring system is cumulative from the first to the third round.
- Questions will be flashed in a multi-media projector and read twice. Ten (10) seconds will be given for the contestants to answer.
- Each contestant will be provided a sheet of paper which will serve as their answer sheet, the paper shall bear the round and question numbers and the name of the school. After ten seconds and on cue from the quizmaster, all answer sheets must be raised, counted & collected by designated officials.
- Failure to raise the answer sheets on time shall disqualify the contestant from answering and will automatically be given a score of zero for that certain question. The contestant may still continue on the succeeding questions.
- Correct answers will be announced after each question, contestants who gave the correct answer shall be recognized and the score shall be counted.
- Answer sheets will be the basis of the official score and will be tallied by a pool of validators.

- The highest scorer after the third round will be declared the Provincial Champion/1st place winner, with the two succeeding scorers as 2nd and 3rd placers. In case of a tie in the last round, a tiebreaker question will be given to determine the winners.
- Corrections made in the answer sheet must be marked with an X and re-written in a legible manner. All illegible answers will be considered incorrect.
- Complaints will be entertained only before the declaration of winners.
